Dear Sir,

We act on behalf of Digital 18 Media Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Our Client"). Our Client is the Plaintiff in the above-captioned suit.

The Plaintiff is the first and exclusive owner of rights, including but not limited to intellectual property rights and copyright, in the subject cinematograph film titled 'Drishyam- The Conclusion' (hereinafter referred to as the "Film"), which is scheduled for a pan-India theatrical release on 02nd October 2026. We act on behalf of Digital 18 Media Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Our Client"). Our Client is the Plaintiff in the above-captioned suit.

The Plaintiff is the first and exclusive owner of rights, including but not limited to intellectual property rights and copyright, in the subject cinematograph film titled 'Drishyam- The Conclusion' (hereinafter referred to as the "Film"), which is scheduled for a pan-India theatrical release on 02nd October 2026. The Film qualifies as a 'work' under Section 2(y) of the Copyright Act, 1957 ('1957 Act') and, being a work of visual recording with accompanying sound recordings, it further qualifies as a "cinematograph film" under Section 2(f) of the 1957 Act. Our Client has instituted the above-captioned Suit against various 'rogue' Websites, inter alia Defendant Nos. 1 to 9, before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, on account of their unauthorized hosting, streaming, and illegal communication of Our Client's copyrighted content, including the cinematograph film 'Jolly LLB 3', and seeking permanent as well as ex-parte ad-interim and temporary injunction restraining the infringement of Our Client's exclusive rights and copyright in the Film by the said rogue websites, as well as for other reliefs.

> (iv) In case, the plaintiff comes across any piracy by any other website or by any person who is not a party to the present suit, it shall be at liberty to inform the Domain Name Registrar Internet Service Providers and to the concerned Government Department, who shall ensure action against the same is also taken."

In light of the Hon'ble Court's direction under Para 7 of the Order dated 01.10.2026, we have hereby identified a list of additional rogue websites which are engaged in illegally streaming and communicating the Film. List of the additional websites is also enclosed herewith and the evidence against the websites is available in the link below:

Dear Sir,

We act on behalf of Digital 18 Media Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Our Client"). Our Client is the Plaintiff in the above-captioned suit.

The Plaintiff is the first and exclusive owner of rights, including but not limited to intellectual property rights and copyright, in the subject cinematograph film titled 'Drishyam- The Conclusion' (hereinafter referred to as the "Film"), which is scheduled for a pan-India theatrical release on 02nd October 2026. The Film qualifies as a 'work' under Section 2(y) of the Copyright Act, 1957 ('1957 Act') and, being a work of visual recording with accompanying sound recordings, it further qualifies as a "cinematograph film" under Section 2(f) of the 1957 Act. > (iv) In case, the plaintiff comes across any piracy by any other website or by any person who is not a party to the present suit, it shall be at liberty to inform the Domain Name Registrar Internet Service Providers and to the concerned Government Department, who shall ensure action against the same is also taken."

In light of the Hon'ble Court's direction under Para 7 of the Order dated 01.10.2026, we have hereby identified a list of additional rogue websites which are engaged in illegally streaming and communicating the Film. List of the additional websites is also enclosed herewith and the evidence against the websites is available in the link below:

I.A. 27399/2026 (under Order XXXIX Rule 1 & 2 of CPC)
I.A. 27405/2026 (under Order XXXIX Rule 3 of CPC)

1. The suit is primarily against defendant nos. 1 to 9 and unknown website(s) i.e., defendant no. 30 (John Doe/Ashok Kumar) from hosting, streaming, and/or making available for viewing and downloading, without authorization, on their websites or other platforms, through the internet in any manner whatsoever, the plaintiff's upcoming film 'Drishyam: The Conclusion' (hereinafter "the Film") so as to infringe the plaintiff's exclusive rights.

2. A submission is made that the defendants' websites have previously indulged in rampant piracy and infringement of the plaintiff's exclusive copyrighted content, inter alia, the well-known film 'Jolly LLB 3'along with other third-party copyrighted content. Such piracy is stated to have been carried out world-wide including within the jurisdiction of this Court. In view of the business model and modus operandi, the plaintiff has reasonable and imminent apprehension that the Film, which is to be released on 02.10.2026, shall be streamed/made available on the defendant websites and shall be watched by the people in Delhi. This shall, in turn, cause loss/injury to the plaintiff.

3. Various submissions have been made and earlier instances of such injunctions been granted have been highlighted. In paragraph nos. 24, 25 and 26 of the plaint, following averments have been made:-

> "24. The Plaintiff has filed the present suit against the following rogue websites i.e., Defendant Nos. 1 to 9 and other unknown rogue websites, which are operating and accessible in Delhi. Details of these rogue

25. The Defendant Websites primarily and substantially engage in, inter alia, communicating to the public, hosting, streaming and/or making available to the public, including audiences within the territorial jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Court in Delhi, copyright-protected content (including films such as 'Jolly LLB 3' etc.), without authorization, and/or facilitating the same. The websites in question are vehicles of infringement whose whole business model is designed to provide members of the public with access to copyrighted content without authorization. The Defendant Websites' mala fides are evident from the vast volume of content available on their websites, the systematic, organised and intentional nature of the infringement, and the regularity and consistency with which content is updated / uploaded on the websites, as is evident from the documents filed along with the plaint.

26. To identify and collect evidence against the Defendant Websites, the Plaintiff engaged the services of a third-party investigation agency. The said agency accessed and investigated the Defendant Websites and collected evidence qua their activities through an internet connection located and available in Delhi. The Plaintiff has been made aware by its investigators that infringing copies of the film 'Jolly LLB 3', in which the Plaintiff holds rights, are being communicated to the public by the Defendant Websites without any authorisation or permission. All the Defendant Websites were found to be accessible within Delhi and to be carrying on their activities by illegally transmitting, communicating and/or making available copyrighted content without the requisite authorisation or permission, including to users and members of the public within Delhi. The Plaintiff has filed herewith evidence evincing the Defendant Websites' illegal and infringing activities of making available to the public the infringing copies of the aforesaid film(s)."

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the plaintiff has also placed reliance on various decisions, where, under almost similar circumstances, protection has been granted to the plaintiff's intellectual property and directions have been issued. Specific reliance has been placed on Jiostar India Private Limited v. Vegamovies.yachts & Ors.[3]. The said civil suit, notably, was entertained prior to release of "Jolly LLB 3".

5. A perusal of the entire list of cases placed on record by the plaintiff indicates that while some of the civil suits are still pending, some have been disposed of while issuing dynamic injunction.

6. On a prima facie perusal of the pleadings and the material placed on record, the Court is satisfied that the plaintiff has been able to make out the case for grant of ad interim ex parte injunction. Annexure

Subject: Action requested to be taken by MEITY and Plantiff for effective removal of content for viewing by public at large within India as per the said orders of Hon'ble Court.

It is observed that a number of orders of Hon'ble Court are issued for blocking of websites every month. There are around more than 2700 ISPs in India and these ISPs are connected among themselves in a mesh network. DOT is instructing each of the ISPs through emails/through its website for blocking of the websites as ordered by the Hon'ble Courts. Ensuring compliance of the orders by each of the ISPs is a time-consuming and complex task especially in view of multiplicity of orders of Hon'ble Courts, multiplicity of websites to be blocked and multiplicity of ISPs.

2. Allocation of Business Rules inter-alia sates thus:-

'Policy matters relating to information technology; Electronics; and Internet (all matters other than licensing of Internet Service Provider)'.

3. In view of above and in order to ensure effective removal by content for viewing by public at large, the plantiff is requested to do a trace route of the web server hosting the said website. In case the web server happens to be in India, the plantiff may inform the same to Meity who may direct the owner of such web server to stop transmission of content as per IT Act and as directed by the Hon'ble Court so that the content would be blocked from the source itself and the exercise of blocking by 2700 ISPs would not be required.

4. In case such server is located abroad i.e. outside India then access to such URL/website can be blocked through the international internet gateways which are much less in number. This would result in timely and effectively removal of undesirable content for viewing by public at large as is the requirement as per the orders of Hon'ble Court.
